

Cole Brown Estates

An Active 55+ Community

“ We looked at townhouses and condos, but loved the idea of owning our own home. We chose the house and made special alterations for my husband. They went out of their way to accommodate us. I can’t say enough about the people, from the neighbors to the carpenters and electricians. The landscaping is above and beyond. If I need something there is always someone to go to. The big thing for me is the safety factor. I feel so safe and comfortable here. I have such a trusting, warm and fuzzy feeling living here.”
