

Cole Brown Estates

An Active 55+ Community

“My decision to move here was one of the best I’ve ever made. I looked around at other places and this was by far the best in every respect. The choices you have for your living environment are tremendous. Not having to worry about outside care is a wonderful benefit. I can’t say enough about Russell Sylvester, the developer. He bends over backwards and does anything that is asked of him.”

~ Nancy Watters
